RIGHT TO RIGHTS

Rights shape our choices for children.

Participation is a child's right as is provision and protection.

But participation is not given as much importance so space honours the child's right to participate.

Rights of children are values that guide the organisation and are woven as actions by all adults.

'A PLACE OF POSSIBILITIES FOR GLOCAL CITIES – Moving Forward in a Deep Learning World, A Concept Paper for Re-Imagining Pedagogy, Human Development, Education & Deep Learning' (June 19, 2020) accompanies 'GLOCAL: SDG TRANSFORMATION HUB-CITIES – A V-Rebound Reality for All, A Sustainable Township Economic Development Concept Paper' (June 7, 2020).

I am the tears that cries my unbelonging which is untrue

I am the truth that washes the filth of untruth from my eyes and my heart of innocence

I am the gaze that sees so clearly that a citizenry of rejection and abandonment raises generations of hurt and war

I am the girl who has awakened this morning to what discrimination, injustice and powerlessness truly means, and how it plagues and entraps one's entire life in a labyrinth of hidden hurt that one can never escape from

I am the voice that finally finds the freedom of release from the entrapment of naive trust

I am the peace that sees your deceit and that the only person you betray is yourself

I am the writer who rewrites the narrative of liberation of my life that overwrites your lies

I am the woman who will not bow down to hate no matter how much you push me and trod upon my rightful existence into ridicule

I am the friend who my true friends - who do not objectify me, who have no need to define me and who simply care deeply and dearly for me - are to me

I rise not from the ashes as you never had the power to burn me

I am the inelegance of mystery that has become an inconvenience for you

I am the poet who creates nothing from nothing

I am the daring that you never saw coming

I am the love of the winds and the seasons

I am the tropical storm that regulates the seas of water after a horrific smog of wildfire of the rivers of blood that was always blamed and silenced as ok

Because: it is not ok

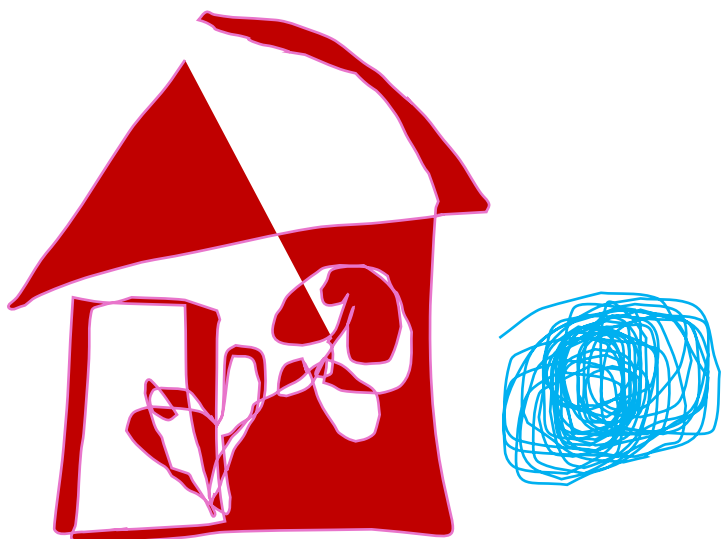

I am the unsilence that you can no longer placate nor tame into your own hideous pleasure games

I am not the anger of history catching up with you

I am the person who stands and soars in spite of everything you have done to beat me down

I am the grace you never thought possible and which you covet in a treasure chest

I am the human livingness who walks in the open sun and under the open skies
